Ironwood Blitzen

About

Ironwood Blitzen is an eventing and dressage stallion from imported lines. He always has competed in open shows, often at the recognized level. He has won 5 divisions of recognized horse trials at the beginner novice level including the USEA Area II Championship show in 2011. Blitzen also has competed successfully in driving and draft shows winning several championships in those disciplines. He is a versatile performer. Blitzen is an athletic Fjord with good bone. Blitzen is known for his excellent temperament and work ethic. In 2019, Blitzen returned to the show ring and has won several year-end awards in dressage. A number of offspring have been NFHR evaluated earning good conformation scores and medallions of quality in performance. Several compete in dressage, eventing and driving at the recognized level.
